VOLUME 2
ISSUE 1

From the desk of Chancellor

Dear Readers,

With great pleasure, I present this first edition of our university newsletter for the year 2025. Over the past months, our shared efforts have yielded not only achievements but also a deeper sense of identity and purpose. From the thoughtful observance of International Days to the inspired presence of scholars, scientists, and statesmen on our campus, this period has been one of resonance and recognition. The successes of our students in research forums and the institutional role we have played in public initiatives underscore the maturity and promise of our university.

Let this newsletter stand as a quiet celebration – of the countless efforts behind the scenes, of the culture we nurture, and of the journey we continue to undertake together. As we step forward, may we carry the same spirit of dedication and discovery that has brought us this far.

With warm regards,

Shri. Satyam Roychowdhury

Vice Chancellor's Message

Dear Readers,

Welcome to the first edition of our newsletter for the year 2025. It is with a deep sense of appreciation that I reflect on the many initiatives, partnerships, and student-led activities that have helped shape this productive quarter. This period witnessed the celebration of Science Day, International Women's Day, Book Fair collaborations, expert lectures, and valuable industry-academia exchanges. These engagements reaffirm our belief that true education is not just about information, but transformation. With every milestone—big or small—TIUT continues to define itself not only as a center of knowledge but as a catalyst of change. I sincerely thank our students, faculty, and staff for their tireless contributions and our Hon'ble Chancellor for his enduring leadership. Together, let us build further on this momentum and embrace the opportunities that await this year with enthusiasm and clarity of purpose.

With warm regards,

Prof. (Dr.) Ratan Kumar Saha
